IMPORTANT!!!!

DEFERRED ACTION OPPORTUNITY FOR UNDOCUMENTED IMMIGRANTS

This is an opportunity for undocumented students to apply for Deferred Action which can help those students avoid deportation and qualify to work legally. CDI, our partner in the College Office, is working with the Legal Aid Society and will hold an information clinic at Manhattan Comprehensive Night & Day School on October 19 from 8:00 am—5:00 pm. This is by appointment only! Please make your appointment through the College Office in the Library or with Lena Eberhart in B10 at ext 6012. If you need more information, please call the College Office at 212-780-91785 ext 3002, or click on the links below in English or Spanish. The Legal Aid Society will then follow-up with students directly. Students will need to bring documents proving the following: county of origin, evidence of entry before 16 and school enrollment.
