Winter Banquet how it all got started by Ms. Berrada PTA President

The Annual Winter Dinner Banquet is a tradition that started 3 years ago, when Ms. Kaplan became the new Coordinator of Student Activities. She wanted to create a fund raising event to thank teachers and parents, as well as bring teachers parents and students closer together, and break in the holiday season. She partnered up with the PTA and me to organize and help run this event. We had a PTA meeting in November discussing design, layout, as well as if any parents were willing to cook and bring food in order to make the event feel more homey.

First both parents and students would either volunteer their time to help set-up and facilitate the event or to bring food that they have cooked themselves. Then students hand deliver invitation to teachers throughout the building, personally inviting them to the banquet, parents also receive said invitations through emails. After that it is just a matter of figuring out the layout and decorations then executing the event. Students help to set up the event and are all dressed in black and white attire. They look like professional waiters and waitresses, it is a lovely sight. They float around chatting with whoever is there and seeing if anyone needs help. When it comes time to unveil the food, the students help to serve it.

This year's Winter Banquet had one of our biggest turnouts. It was a lovely evening where family, friends and colleagues all come together for a good meal as well as good vibes. I especially enjoyed seeing the performances by the music classes in our school; they were very creative as well as beautifully done. It is a wonderful event that always ends in smiles and joyous laughter from everybody.

At the end of it all Kaplan uses the funds for future student activities, and the PTA uses it to add money to the scholarships for students.
