BARNARD

Edith Serrano - Barnard College

I had no idea that I would end up going to Barnard College. I had other schools in mind, believing that I did not want to stay in New York City. I figured college meant I needed to go away from home, and explore the world. I thought I needed to get out of my comfort zone to meet new people, as well as have new experiences. However, unfortunately, the best-laid plans often go awry. I was place on the wait-list for some of my top schools. Being wait-listed was probably the most unexpected thing to come upon me. I wanted to attend Cornell University, and never expected to be wait-listed, even after submitting in all of the required documents. I always thought I would either be accepted or rejected. When Barnard College also wait-listed me, I was so disappointed. I was accepted to NYU and Smith College; however, I did not feel like they were the right fit. So I was so excited when Barnard eventually offered me a spot in the class of 2019. In the end, with the help from Ms. Scurdy my Site Coordinator at the LPP program, and Marina my College Advisor, I realized that Barnard College is the place for me. Considering that I attended Barnard Bound, and had a great experience, I should not be surprised.

I plan on becoming a biomedical engineer and with Barnard's 3-2 Engineering Program with Columbia University, I know that I can excel with the rigorous courses. I believe that Barnard College will be an ideal school because it provides both a small liberal arts education and also a large university setting of Columbia University. I have many interests I wish to explore before focusing on my major. Barnard College inspires women to be well round with the Nine Ways of Knowing Curriculum. I can take music and language classes as well as join several clubs of my interests. Later, I will have the opportunity to study biomedical engineering at Columbia University for the remaining two years of my undergraduate college career.

Staying in New York City is not all bad because I have yet to discover all of its opportunities. In the end, I feel more confident in choosing Barnard College over New York University, despite the fact that I am nervous about the coursework. I know that I will be fully prepared for anything once I graduate and I will be in good standing.

SMITH COLLEGE

Sasha-Kay Shrouder - Smith College

My journey with Smith College started with Posse. I was fascinated by this all women's college in Massachusetts that had everything I was interested in; those interests of course include music, Anthropology, Science and Middle Eastern studies. I was told I could not apply to Smith unless I decided to apply STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) and unfortunately I didn't want to apply STEM so I took Smith off my list. I didn't make it through the Posse process, so I decided to apply regular decision on the CommonApp. Smith College bounced on and off of my college list until in the end; I decided that I was going to apply because I like the school and it seemed like a good fit for me. On February 28th, I got the chance to visit Smith through the CDI program at my school and I absolutely loved it. I LOVE Smith! It was such a beautiful campus, the overall vibe of the school was one I knew I could not only survive in but thrive in. I was in love for the second time in my life and it was absolutely fabulous. On March 27th when decisions were sent out, I was placed on the wait-list. It was so heartbreaking and I wanted to give up on the school; however, with the encouragement from my friend, I decided to remain on the wait-list.

Fast forward to May 5th when I was about to commit to another school, I received a phone call that made my year. Smith College would like to offer me a spot in their Class of 2019. I was ecstatic! All that I went through in the beginning didn't matter, what was most important was that I got in and that I was going to my dream school! My Smith journey started off a little rocky, but ended splendidly.

I am a Smithie and I eagerly await the exciting opportunities at Smith!

Wen Yu (Fiona) Luo - Cornell University

Cornell University is my dream school; I always want to attend. Junior and senior year, I visited the school. I fell in love with Cornell University; I love the campus and all of the programs offered. I felt like I belong there and made it my mission to get into Cornell. However, I truly did not believe I would be accepted. I thought I was not good enough academically. I would often tell Ms. Scurdy the LPP Site Coordinator that I even though Cornell is my dream school, I am afraid I will not be accepted. I even considered not applying, but everyone encouraged me to apply.

I was terrified on March 31st at 5:00pm when decisions were emailed. I was scared to check because I convinced myself I would be rejected. On April 1st after everyone pressured me to check, I was waiting to get my breakfast. I decided to suck it up and check my email. While nervously searching my email, I held my breath anticipating a rejection. I clicked on the email that read "undergraduate..." The words "Congratulation on your acceptance" confused me. I was in disbelief, shocked, I kept telling myself "this can't be correct, they made a mistake." I remember reading about John Hopkins mistakenly sending acceptance letters to the wrong students. I was shaking and smiling at the same time. I could not wait for 2nd period to end, so I could talk to Ms. Scurdy. I practically ran to the LPP office and showed Ms. Scurdy the email. She gave me a bighug. I really wanted to say thank you to her because she helps m when I have problems; she give me a lot of support and made me bel we that anything is possible, especially Cornell University.

I have finally accepted that I actually got into Cornell University. I lo ffe forward to attending this fall 2015. I am so happy to apply because I will be attending my dream school.

BINGHAMTON UNIVERSITY

State University of New York

Joshua Figueroa - Binghamton University

As I get closer to beginning my college journey at Binghamton University in a few weeks, I am getting a little sad and a bit nostalgic about my high school years at HPHS. Sure, just like any other high school senior, I am ready for school to be over and ready to begin my next stage in life. I can't wait for the last day of school! I find myself dragging out of bed each morning and counting the days until graduation. Prom is in a few days and soon after that, we will be wearing our teal graduation gowns! When all is said and done, I know that there will be much I will miss about HPHS and the friendships I've made there. We will each move on to our new lives and make new friends, but we will never forget the experiences we had in our high school. HPHS has helped me in many ways to get to the point I am now. I will take everything I have learned and experienced at HPHS, both good and bad, and use them as tools to continue growing and prospering as I enter my new life. Graduation day will be bittersweet but I am ready for Binghamton! I am ready to embark on this new journey.

Good luck to all the graduates this year; I wish everyone much success in their future endeavors. Thank you HPHS!

We want to acknowledge Ms Berrada for her service and dedication to the school and wish her all the best.

When my son Adam went to high school, I decided that I wanted to be alongside him and his school for the next four years. I wanted to learn, help, and be a part of everything possible within the school. The first PTA meeting was what set the stage and allowed me to do everything that I had set out to do. It was in September during Adam's freshman year that I went to the PTA meeting as a concerned parent because my son still hadn't gotten his textbook in Spanish class. After telling Mr. Gentile about the issue, he was genuinely surprised and immediately told me he'd get on it. This helped me to feel at ease in the school and that being a part of the PTA is a great way to be able to help the school and other PTA members and their children.

Going forward since then I made a habit of attending every event and meeting I could, and would consistently offer a helping hand around the school. Whether it was the College Office's Financial Aid nights, or the Open Houses and Open School Nights, I would always gladly give my time to the school. Especially when it came to chaperoning trips for the science department. Whenever Med Assist or Science Research needed a few extra chaperones, I would call to see if they needed help and would try and find other parents who would volunteer their time with me.

As much as I enjoyed helping around the school and learning from other parents and faculty members about a multitude of subjects, like the college process and how to help Adam pick classes, the greatest part of these past four years was all the relationships and friendships I had gained. From Mr. Gentile to all of the parents at the PTA meeting and all the faculty members I had interactions with I feel as if I have grown closer and befriended all of you.

It is specifically because of these bonds that I was able to accumulate knowledge and allowed me to be put into a position to better help other parents and the school going forward. I was able to become PTA president as well as a board member for the SLT for the past few years. By being a part of these two organizations I was able to find what aspects of the school could be bettered as well as how these organizations could help in the bettering of the school; But even more so I was able to share the information that I had gain with other parents and allowed them to maximize both their time and their child's time while at HPHS.

Although it is with a heavy heart that this will be the last year, but there is not a single thing that I would change from these last four years. I can honestly say that you all have made this journey and unforgettable experience. The friendships and memories that I have made can never be replaced. There will never be a greater feeling than being with all of you at an open house and having the students saying hi to us by name. I love you all. Thank you all for this unforgettable experience.

Congratulations to the Class of 2015 colleges and universities that our students will be attending in September.
